

Sermon Notes
Job 32 – 37
July 31, 2022

The three friends of Job conclude that Job must have sinned and therefore suffering came. Elihu believes that in the suffering Job has sinned.

Lessons from Elihu

Just living a long time does not automatically make you wise

Slow to Speak
Express Appropriate Anger
Do not flatter

Just being young does not make you wise.

God can always be trusted to do what is best for us.

Sermon Notes
Job 32 – 37
July 31, 2022

The three friends of Job conclude that Job must have sinned and therefore suffering came. Elihu believes that in the suffering Job has sinned.

Lessons from Elihu

Just living a long time does not automatically make you wise

Slow to Speak
Express Appropriate Anger
Do not flatter

Just being young does not make you wise.

God can always be trusted to do what is best for us.

Small Group Study Questions Job 32-36

What four reasons are given for why Elihu now speaks?

With what statements of Job does Elihu take issue?
(33:8-12)

Of what sin does Elihu charge Job? (34:37)

How does Elihu answer Job's complaint that it profits a man nothing to delight in God? (35:4-7)

What reason does Elihu give for why God might not answer the cries of men? (35:12)

Do you find it hard to learn from young people? If so, why?

How do you know if someone has the spirit of truth and understanding?

How do you know if your anger is righteous or carnal?

What experiences have you had that confirm that God can always be trusted to do what is best for you?

Small Group Study Questions Job 32-36

What four reasons are given for why Elihu now speaks?

With what statements of Job does Elihu take issue? (33:8-12)

Of what sin does Elihu charge Job? (34:37)

How does Elihu answer Job's complaint that it profits a man nothing to delight in God? (35:4-7)

What reason does Elihu give for why God might not answer the cries of men? (35:12)

Do you find it hard to learn from young people? If so, why?

How do you know if someone has the spirit of truth and understanding?

How do you know if your anger is righteous or carnal?

What experiences have you had that confirm that God can always be trusted to do what is best for you?