

July 17, 2011
Dr. Mark D. Cain
Colossians

The “Center” of the Christian Life
Colossians 1:24-27
(p.1178)

The center of the Christian life
is Jesus Christ in the center of your life.

THE WHAT

“Christ in you”

Colossians 1:24-27

You will never understand New Testament Christianity until you grasp something of its essential interiority.

Adapted from A.W. Tozer

THE SO WHAT – Because Jesus indwells you...

1. You share in the “benefits” of His work.
2. You enjoy the “intimacy” of relationship.
3. You can experience a new “power.”
4. You have absolute “assurance” at death.

No other religion makes such an extravagant claim: that the God of the universe exists not just as an external power...but as One who lives inside us, transforming from the inside out. –Philip Yancey