The Peace of God
Philippians 4:4-7

- If comfortable, tell of a time you struggled with anxiety.
- Do you believe that God wants to replace your anxiety with His peace?
- How can joy in the Lord help to knock out anxiety? (verse 4)
- What's the motive for displaying gentleness when someone keeps trying to chip away at you or criticize you? (verse 5)
- Do you ever feel that God is wise, sovereign and powerful enough to come through but just not for you?
- Why do we often leave out prayer when we are anxious?
- Eat, Love, Pray or Golf, Love, Pray – Have you had a chance to make any movement in engaging others with Eat, Love, Pray?
Describe what it could look like to listen to the anxieties of others, love them and pray for them?
- Why is it important to reflect backward on God's past faithfulness to encourage us to move forward in His future faithfulness?
- Describe a storm in your life where God gave you His peace? Did it make sense that you were at peace or was it a peace beyond comprehension? (verse 7)
- Summarize how you will utilize the resources at your disposal in the midst of anxiety? Praise, Perspective, Prayer, More Praise
